

INVITATION TO HOST AASG CONFERENCE

THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF AASG IS LOOKING FOR AN ADVENTUROUS, ENTHUSIASTIC, ORGANIZED STUDENT COUNCIL TO HOST THE AASG CONFERENCE!

What do you gain by hosting the conference?

School Pride!

Unite your student council, staff, and student body by hosting this statewide leadership event! The conference takes work, planning, and cooperation!

Skills and a Sense of Accomplishment!

Hosting a conference is a great opportunity for students to apply leadership skills to real life experience. The planning extends over the whole school year, so long-range planning and effective communication is emphasized. Attention to details and problem-solving skills are honed. You can develop a strong sense of success with this accomplishment!

Community Pride and Economic Benefits!

This school-wide event is a major event. You can show off what makes your community great! Community groups will support the host school and student council to create a wonderful experience. And in return, the community gets business from the conference needed supplies and services. Plus the host school reaps 10% of the profits from the conference.

Leadership opportunities!

A student leader and advisor from the host school will attend a National Conference. All conference costs are covered by AASG, to be reimbursed from proceeds from the conference. And a student leader and the advisor participate in AASG executive board meetings and teleconferences prior to the conference.

AASG Support!

The Executive Board and Executive Director are there for you as the host school. We work with you to make this a wonderful experience!

TO HOST THE CONFERENCE, YOU WILL NEED:

- ✓ An active student council and advisor willing and able to focus on this adventure.
- ✓ An administration that supports this project, and will allow your school to be used.
- ✓ A room that will serve the general assembly of delegates plus classrooms for break-out sessions. AASG will work with you on numbers of delegates to expect.
- ✓ A budget and organization to keep the finances. The AASG Executive Director will work with you.
- ✓ Optimism and steadfastness. Hosting a conference is a both a great opportunity and a challenge. Just ask advisors about what it takes! You'll want to host this conference when you hear about their experiences! And get more info from Carol Waters, Executive Director at 346-3148 or ma2tna@acsalaska.net.
